

Hello All,

Thought this might be of interest – TASMANIA UNBOTTLED is coming up on 14 September @ The Intercontinental – a great chance to deep dive into Tassie wine/winemakers and refresh your springtime list with some brilliant cool climate wines.

TASMANIA UNBOTTLED 2011

The island state of Tasmania is rapidly increasing its global reputation for crafting some of Australia's best Sparkling and Pinot Noir wines, not to mention stunning Chardonnay and Riesling. You are invited to taste more than 150 new release and award winning elegant cool climate Tasmanian wines in Brisbane, Sydney and Melbourne. This is your chance to see what the world is talking about...! Come along and meet Tasmania's talented producers and try their wines at this exclusive event.

For more information, click.

Registration is essential! To register for any of the above events, click here now, and enter the competition to win a holiday for two to Tasmania. BOOK NOW

Participating producers include Abel's Tempest, Barringwood Park, Bay of Fires, Bream Creek, Cape Bernier, Clover Hill, Coal Valley Vineyard, Dalrymple, Delamere, Derwent Estate, Devil's Corner, Domaine A / Stoney Vineyard, Frogmore Creek, Glaetzer-Dixon, Goat Hill, Grey Sands, Heemskerk, Holm Oak, Home Hill, Jansz Tasmania, Josef Chromy, Moores Hill, Moorilla, Native Point, Pirie Tasmania, Spring Vale and Tamar Ridge.

TASMANIA UNBOTTLED 2011 Melbourne; Wednesday 14 September, Intercontinental at The Rialto, 495 Collins Street, Melbourne
Trade / Media Tasting, 11.00am-4.00pm, * Restricted to trade/media (identification on entry)

Registration Prize;

The amazing holiday on offer in 2011, courtesy of Tourism Tasmania and Orion Expeditions, includes two (2) return flights to Hobart from either Brisbane, Sydney or Melbourne (Tullamarine) Airports, a Junior Suite on the five (5) night Orion Expeditions Tasmanian Food & Wine Cruise, departing Hobart on 07/11/11 and (2) nights accommodation either side of the cruise on 06/11/11 and 12/11/11 on a twin share basis.